Yearbook Dedication 2000

Throughout the four years here, Mr. Flynn has provided us with many fond memories. From classic literature and their heros and heroines, to making sure the show went on for the school play. You have been instrumental in providing refreshment for our souls with your passion for life, desire to learn, and stories of growing up in Indiana. We thank you for your commitment and all your hard work.

In the past four years, Mr. Sarrouf you have been an inspiration to all of us. You make Science an enjoyable and interesting subject. No matter how much we put you through, you still managed to give your free time and effort to helping students. You have always given your all into helping us to reach further goals. Your lesson in life will always be remembered in our hearts.

The Class of 2000 hopes that your retirement be joyous, happy, and fun. Always remember the students at McCann and how much you made us grow and learn. No matter where we go in the world we will take pieces of the lessons that you have taught us. We would like to thank you for dedicating your lives to help make ours beneficial and meaningful as we continue on. Thank You!

ALMA MATER

To thee our Alma Mater
Our Praises bring
In loyalty united
Shall our voices ring
Years shall roll slowly on
We shall spread across the land
But in our hearts we'll cherish
Mem'ries of McCann
Guarded by stately mountains
Steadfast you stand
Lighting our paths with knowledge
For the lives we've planned
Strenght to fight for the right
Eager hearts and skillful hands
Carry us ever onward
Hail to thee, McCann

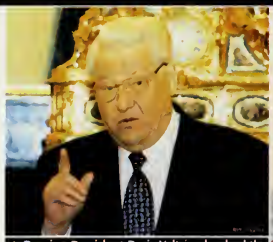
world events



▲ Russian President Boris Yeltsin shocked the world by resigning on New Year's Eve. He handed the reigns of power to Prime Minister Vladimir Putin. In one of his first acts as President, Putin gave Yeltsin bodyguards, a pension, and immunity from prosecution.

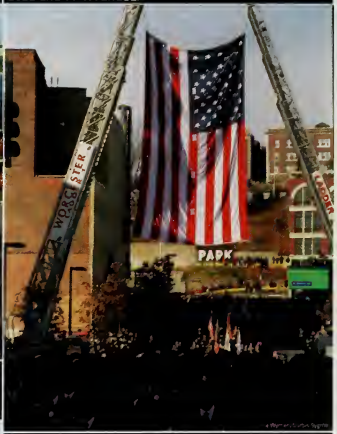
Evan Yee/LADN/Corbis Sygma

▲ Alaska Airline Flight 261 crashed 11 miles off Point Mugu, California on January 31. All 88 people on board were killed.

▲ School violence continued to be a major concern. Since February of 1997, school shooting sprees left 36 dead and 77 wounded.

Sven Greuemann/Corbis Sygma

▲ Elian Gonzalez, a six-year-old refugee from Cuba was rescued after the boat carrying him and his mother went down in the Atlantic Ocean. Elian's mother drowned on their journey and a huge controversy erupted over whether the boy should be allowed to stay in the United States with relatives, or returned to his father in Cuba.



▲ Six firefighters were killed in a December 3, Worchester, Massachusetts blaze started by squatters in a warehouse. More than 15,000 firefighters from all over the world gathered for a memorial service.

A Lopez/Corbis Sygma

▲ Russia came under international scrutiny for waging a civil war to try to hold on to the break-away republic of Chechnya. After months of fierce fighting neither side gained much ground, and a settlement seemed nowhere in sight.

▲ Raisa Gorbachev, former first lady of the Soviet Union, died after a battle with leukemia.

▲ Ninety-year old Doris Haddock, also known as "Granny D," walked 3,000 miles across the U.S. to draw attention to campaign finance reform.

▲ Greek deputy foreign minister Yiannos Kranidiotis was killed after the plane he was traveling in suddenly lost altitude on its way to Romania. Kranidiotis and his son were both reported dead.

▲ Switzerland's Bertrand Piccard and Britain's Brian Jones travelled around the world in a balloon on a 20-day, 29,000 mile voyage. This was the first voyage of its kind to make it all the way around the world.

▲ "America's son" John F. Kennedy Jr., his wife Carolyn Bessette and her sister Lauren Bessette were killed when the plane John was piloting crashed into the ocean off the coast of Massachusetts.

▲ The San Diego Zoo was home to Hua Mei, the first surviving giant panda to be born in a North American zoo.

▲ The last solar eclipse of the century drew thousands of spectators around the world on August 11. A shadow cast by the moon turned day to night for those in a seventy mile wide path from England to India.

▲ Over 17,000 people were killed and thousands more injured when a magnitude 7.4 earthquake hit Izmit, Turkey on August 17.

▲ Suspected serial killer Rafael Resendez-Ramirez surrendered to authorities after more than three weeks on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list. He was wanted in connection with eight murders along railroad tracks in Illinois, Kentucky, and Texas.

▲ The rain from Hurricane Floyd caused the worst flooding in North Carolina in recent memory. Water from the Tar and Neuse rivers covered 66 counties, destroying over 4,000 homes and killing 51 people.

Corbis Sygma

▲ All 217 passengers aboard EgyptAir flight 990 were killed October 31, after the plane dropped 17,000 feet in a matter of seconds. Initial reports indicated that a backup pilot may have intentionally plunged the plane into the Atlantic Ocean southeast of Nantucket Island.

Joe Giblin/Newsmakers

▲ George W. Bush took the essential states he needed on "Super Tuesday" to win the Republican nomination for president, beating out John McCain.▼

Corbis Sygma

Kanohov/Corbis Sygma

▲ Morocco's King Hassan, one of the Middle Easts' most devoted peacemakers, died after ruling for over 38 years.

Scott Hustler/Corbis Sygma

▲ A heat wave in the Eastern U.S. claimed 95 lives and withered crops from Kansas to the Atlantic Ocean.

Baldev/Corbis Sygma

▲ Thousands were feared dead as a "supercyclone" tore through India in October. Another cyclone just two weeks earlier killed 100 people and injured 1,000 in Orissa.

▲ More than 2,100 people lost their lives when an earthquake measuring 7.6 on the Richter scale shook through the island of Taiwan.

▲ People around the world celebrated the turn of the century. These partiers ushered in the year 2000 in New York's Times Square.

Vermeulen/Gerhard Studio/Corbis Sygma

▲ Despite fears of the predicted Y2K bug, mass computer shutdowns and chaos in the streets, January 1, 2000 came and went with virtually no problems at all.

▲ Stalled Middle East peacemaking efforts were put back on track when Yasser Arafat and Prime Minister Ehud Barak of Israel signed a land-for-security agreement.

▲ Despite strong showings in early polls for former senator Bill Bradley, Vice President Al Gore had the Democratic presidential nomination wrapped up by the end of "Super Tuesday" in March.

▲ A November World Trade Organization conference in Seattle was disrupted by violent protesters claiming the WTO promoted large, multinational corporations at the expense of workers' rights and environmental concerns.

▲ A string of deadly tornados crossed the southwest, killing 47 people and damaging or destroying over 2,600 homes and businesses. Worst hit was the Oklahoma City area where over 50 tornados touched down.
